Episode 3 – Legal Documentation

When talking of legal documentation often people think just around the purchase and sell contracts and not much more.

This episode covers some of the different legal documentation that may be required in your project.

Stephanie McGrath of Robert James Lawyers provides some insights into the benefits from getting the documentation right as well as some of the things look for at due diligence, other types of strategies around options and petition agreement, the importance of addressing early permits and council requirements, and some of the things we should look out in building contracts.
