Episode 98 – Happy International Women’s Day

In this episode we will be having discussions including International Women's Day with the theme Balance for Better.

Key Dates:

- December BAS should now be lodged.
- FBT year ends 31st March so now is the time to start thinking of getting figures ready for this including odometer readings.

Reminder

- Be aware of the SCAMS going around. Don't open any attachment or links in emails or texts.
- Report any scams or fraud immediately at ATO.

International Women’s Day

- 8 March is the International Women’s day is being celebrated all over the world.
- It has a theme Balance for Better
- This is the day to celebrate Women’s achievement and gender equality.

What we are about

- To help women to take charge of their financial future stats
- To remind them what they should do.
- Manage day to day finances - be involved in process and talk about money
- Review investment strategy and time frame
- Review insurances
- Action Plan- Taking control

Let’s celebrate International Women's Day and a Balance for Better. We have spoken about taking charge of your financial future, which is applicable to everyone, yet more so to women due to the extra hurdles they face in their lives. It's time to review where you are at financially and create your action plan.
